GENERAL ENGLISH COURSE

Our General English course develops your real-life English communication skills for work, social, educational, or general situations.

You will work together with a specialized English tutor to apply and build up your language. Your tutor will help you to increase your grammar and vocabulary, increasing your confidence and fluency in real-life situations. Each class will have a clear objective to support your skills progression, and an enjoyable, varied approach. Your specific language and personal needs will be taken into account every step of the way.

This General English program is designed to improve all aspects of English, including listening, speaking, reading, writing, grammar, vocabulary, and pronunciation. We offer classes at all CEFR levels, from beginner (A1) to advanced (C2). You can also work up through the levels, gaining a certificate of attendance, after completion of each one.

IELTS PREPARATION

The International English Language Testing System (IELTS) is the world's proven English test.

Our specialized IELTS preparation courses will develop your reading, writing, speaking and listening skills and confidence, in order for you to take the IELTS examination at the level you need, be it for university entrance, work, or general purposes.

Your classes will focus on expanding all four skills. You can also advise us of the skills in which you need the most support: we will devise a suitable study plan for you.

You will practice IELTS examination-style exercises, to enable you to become comfortable with the exam's structure and requirements, and you can take a practice examination assessed by an experienced examiner.
